Aktivreise: Urlaub und Tischtennis miteinander verbinden

03.02.2015 - Haben Sie schon einmal den Urlaub und das Tischtennistraining miteinander verbunden? In der spanischen Stadt Calafu, dem beliebten Touristenort an der Costa del Maresme, bieten sich dafür hervorragende Gelegenheiten. Denn dort ist einer der führenden Tischtennisvereine Spaniens beheimatet, der regelmäßig Lehrgänge anbietet. Mit Schäffer's Aktivreisen erhalten Sie ein attraktives Angebot für Kurs und Unterkunft!

Eine Kapazität von zwölf Tischen weist die Fabrice Lobet Calafu auf (@Schäffer's Aktivreisen)

Die Idee zu den Lehrgängen geht auf ein Tischtennis-Turnier zurück, das ab 1998 veranstaltet wurde. Im Jahr 2005 wurde auf Wunsch der überwiegend deutschen Teilnehmer neben dem Turnier auch erstmals ein Lehrgang durchgeführt. Denn neben dem Turnier wollten die Spieler vor Ort auch entsprechendes Training geboten bekommen.

Heutzutage erwartet die Teilnehmer eines Kurses, der sonntags losgeht und bis freitags dauert, bis zu 14 Trainingseinheiten und die Unterbringung in Hotels in Calafu (Vollpension). Leiter des Lehrgangs ist Fabian Lenke, National-Sportwissenschaftler, Inhaber der B- und C-Trainerlizenz sowie Co-Trainer der Deutschen Nationalmannschaft im Behinderten-Tischtennis.
